BUDAPEST

A VIBRANT AND EXCITING METROPOLIS

- ▶ The Danube sweeps through the heart of the capital, affording lovely views from the elegant Buda Palace.
- ▶ Be charmed by a tale of two cities: Buda is a place of rolling hills and shady woods, while bustling Pest holds the lion's share of shops, restaurants and bars.
- ▶ With a rich cultural heritage and a lively social scene, Budapest offers plenty to keep you entertained.
- ▶ An ideal destination for business or for pleasure.
- ▶ An inspiring city that has always attracted creative types, providing a haven for writers, artists and musicians.
- ▶ Soak in a 16th-century Turkish bath, take in a performance at the beautiful Opera House and enjoy a bottle of wine beneath the stars in leafy Liszt Ferenc Square.

BUDAPEST | HISTORY ALL AROUND

- ▶ Explore Roman ruins, ornamental Gothic churches, broad Parisian boulevards and Art-Nouveau palaces dripping with colourful motifs.
- ▶ Admire some breathtaking landmarks, including Europe's largest Parliament building and its largest synagogue.
- ▶ Step back in time with a visit to the Castle District, a UNESCO World Heritage Site overlooking the river. Its narrow alleys lead past medieval bastions, quaint cottages and the imposing Buda Palace.
- ▶ Take a gentle walk past splendid eclectic and Art-Nouveau mansions along Andrásy Avenue and the Great Boulevard.

BUDAPEST | DINING AND ENTERTAINMENT

- ▶ Hungary has a proud culinary tradition; tickle your tastebuds with stuffed pancakes, meaty goulash, creamy cakes – and much more besides...
- ▶ Enjoy the ambience of Budapest's coffee shops, some with last-century elegance and others offering a contemporary spin on the café culture.
- ▶ Savour fine traditional food in Gundel Restaurant, the epitome of distinguished dining and high culinary art.

PROGRAMMES NOT TO MISS

- ▶ Join a riverboat cruise and make the best of the Danube panorama.
- ▶ Relish an evening's performance at the exquisite State Opera House.
- ▶ Climb up to the Basilica's outer gallery and take a bird's-eye view of the city.
- ▶ Take a trawl past the city's highlights aboard an open-top sightseeing bus.
- ▶ Take advantage of a really tasty bargain – a cut-price Sunday brunch at Gundel, the country's poshest restaurant.
- ▶ Take in some of the 200 fascinating museums and galleries, from master paintings in the Museum of Fine Arts to interactive displays for children in the Palace of Miracles.
- ▶ Book yourself into one of the world-famous spa-and-wellness hotels and indulge in a few days of proper pampering.
